

My dears Monday 10 Pk

You will no doubt be glad to know how we are getting on with the settling. It is the same as if we had just got in last night, as we shut up the business all day yesterday & went to Lehigh to see Aunt who has been very ill for several days. We had a lovely walk over from Fresh planned we were in England again, and had no moving going on. The walk did me lots of good, rested my poor head & nerves, & will drive us home in time for church. Today I have been able to tackle this with renewed energy, with Adolph & Maggie & Alice's help.
All the bedroom closets, carpet, mattress room, the spare room the girls, & the library, are down & we are at work on lessons.
Nath is coming to help see that & the upper Hall to ensure which will be a dreadful job but well with the back & allie stairs finish my carpet work
The kitchen pantry, kitchen & basement are about in order which I think is a pretty good record for one day after moving. We expect to have some string & decent vocal to move us. It is very quiet & peaceful but rather lonely without you all in a strange place. I did not miss you nearly as much in Elbert because I was used to being alone there. Auntie is better Grandma much the same.

Miller was at Lake Bluff yesterday. Ida is good natured but stupid & does what she is told cheerfully but nothing else. Jennie & Mother were here to day, invited me to lunch Wednesday.
I think that is all there is to tell. The new carpets are given in color & won't be here till the end of the week. The bath room is a real blessing & Papa has gone housekeeping with his numerous sacred British pants, in the attic.
He seems perfectly happy up there among the labyrinth of brooks. Tell all the dear C. C. folks that I am making the work light by peopling the house with the faces that I love, in the restful days of the future. I trust Cousin M is well. Misses all round.
Be my own good children for my sake & make a happy woman of your dear Mother

Care of W. B. Bailey

No

39. Delirium

6. Fainting

14. Lost happiness

9. Consolation

16. Grief

15. Poetic fancy

4. Confidant

Restlessness

2. Regret

17. Passion

18. Death

Flexory blind

Farkittell

45-

"

Mrs Grace
Charles City
Floyd Co.
Iowa

W. B. Bailey

